Happy New Year

2010 is here! Just the other day Jackie's aunt (who is 87) said, "I wonder what cars are going to look like in the future?" Then she said, "There might be cars that fly."

I immediately remembered conversations many years back as a young boy in the 1960's. We talked about flying cars in the future. I don't remember exactly what year we said that there would be flying cars but I think it was in the year 2010. Well, cars aren't flying but the point is there was a time that 2010 seemed so far away. It was like there never would be a year 2010.

Here it is.....2010. It is hard to imagine but we made it. We made it to the future. The future is a reality.

What is going to happen in 2010? Maybe Alabama will win another national championship. Let's dream bigger than that, ok, maybe Jesus will come in the clouds. Now that is a future to look to. Will you be ready???

Jan 1, Hog Jowl and Black-Eyed Peas and the Fixin's. We eat at 11 AM and it will be over when the food is gone. Do you have a specialty? Then prepare it and bring it Friday.

MEETING JAN. 19

6:30 P.M.

MYSELF

“One day I looked at myself,
At the self that Christ can see;
I saw the person I am today,
And the one I ought to be.

I saw how little I really pray,
How little I really do;
I saw the influence of my life—
How little of it was true.

I saw the bundle of fears,
I ought to lay on the shelf;
I had given a little bit to God,
But - - I hadn't given myself.

I came from seeing myself,
With the mind made up to be
The sort of person that Christ can use,
With a heart He may always see.”

To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Eastwood, I am so happy to be the new Youth Minister. I have never felt so welcomed in my entire life. I have some big plans for this youth group. I feel that the foundation for church growth begins with the young folks. They have the best opportunity to invite others. As you can see, our youth group is a little low in numbers, but we plan on changing that. It is our mission to build this youth group up to what it once was. To do that, it is going to require effort from the entire church. We are going to have events in the near future that bring other youth groups over to Eastwood. I hope that we can all make them feel welcomed, just as I was. I have been very impressed with the parents here at Eastwood. You all seem very eager and excited about the youth. I have had plenty of parents offer to let us come over and have devotionals at their homes. This is the excitement that we are going to need to accomplish our goal. And we WILL accomplish our goal. Thank you for everything you do. In his Love, Colton Scott
