EASTWOOD BULLETIN

From

Sonny Side:

The

Just back from singing. We went to Lauderdale Christian Nursing Home. We have been having very good attendance in our monthly singings. Ron Hayes and David Meyers lead for us tonight (Tuesday night). These two men can lead singing. The residence seemed to enjoy it so much.

Sunday we will worship at Montreat Apts. Worship begins at 1:30 PM. We would love for you to come and take part in this admiration to our Heavenly Father.

To the members of Eastwood Church of Christ,

I hope you are doing wonderful. The youth has had a busy past few weeks, with Taking it to the Streets, GLOW, and I AM. We need to keep encouraging our teens to be attending these events. These are perfect opportunities to grow spiritually, and to be inviting others. It is my wish to see this church grow, and I believe that it starts with our youth. We also need to congratulate our graduating seniors; Magan Cobb, Amanda Daniel, and Katie Pruett. These three girls have been a great blessing to this church, and we all wish them the best for the future. Also, keep in mind that summer is right around the corner. I hope that we will all set aside some time to attend camps, and summer youth series, and many other events. I hope that you have a blessed week.

Philippians 1:3.

In Him, Colton Scott
